Wa Qaala Rabbukum Ud'Uni Astajib Lakum. Rabbi Sharahli Sadri, Wa Yassirli Amri, Wahlul Uqdatan Min Lisani, Yaf Kahu Kawli. Sub'hanaka la 'ilma lana illa ma 'allamtana innaka anta al'aleemu alhakeem. Assalamu Alaykum Warahmatullahi Wabarakatuh.

Allow me first to congratulate the successful applicants who were chosen to be part of the growing workforce of the Ministry of Public Order and Safety. You have such a good fate, blessed with a compelling reason as to why you were selected to be here, and why the new employee of this ministry. These were because the blessing of Allah was endowed on you, and because, MPOS as your hiring ministry, we have seen a great potential in you that will have a big impact to the ministry. We believe in your capabilities reflected on your academic excellence and experiences to be useful and advantageous for the sake of the Bangsamoro. You are the chosen few whom we vouch can carry and manifest genuinely the principle of moral governance based on Islamic perspective. I challenge you to sustain the trust and confidence that we give you, to help strengthen the ministry in fulfilling its service to the Bangsamoro. I expect that you give your level best to create a conducive and responsive workplace based on mutual respect and integrity setting example as good Bangsamoro Public Servants who will perform their responsibilities on time and by the book. You should be enthusiastic to continue and practice high standard of integrity and moral ascendancy without coercion to serve the Bangsamoro.

As the ministry is new with limited workforce and given the high demand to accomplish our programs before 2022 amidst the pandemic, I hope you understand that we may ask you to do multi-tasking, so I ask for your utmost patience. May you practice how to organize your time and keep the right balance between work and your personal life as you have your family to serve as well. Work hard but do not over do for it may burn you out. Your health and wellness are also our consideration and priority so we can work together under our mandates and functions to build a peaceful and developed Bangsamoro.

Welcome to MPOS, and Congratulations.

Wa billahi tawfik Wal Hidayah, Good Evening. Assalamu Alaykum Warahmatullahi Taala Wabarakatuh!
